Girl Scout Troop Visits Children At Institution

Girl Scout troop 2000 recently gave an afternoon party to the County Spastic Foundation for Children. The girls brought books for the library. Also each patrol made cupcakes and punch for the children and staff.

Mrs. Marvel Deliman was the script writer and director of the four skits the girls acted out. Skits by each patrol were: Pancho and Pedro, Alice in Beatnickland, Wimpy meets Popeye, and How to make Western Movies.

Dog obedience exercises were demonstrated by Marty Lehr, Jr., and her miniature poodle, Sir Guy. Another attraction was Einer (German Shepherd), fascinating the audience by counting for them and talking to them.

The Girl Scout troop has gathered clothes for the foundation and is still asking for help in collecting clothes and books for these boys and girls.

Girls participating at the party were Janice Johnson, Darlene Brady, Carol Boots, Valerie Burton, Louise Burton, Dianna Brannon, Sandra Chimelewski, Linda Clark, Tracy Dellman, Donna Flicker, Susan Johnson, Marty Lehr, Dianne Lippard, Lenore Mormino, Cherie Riley, Teresa Shivar, Karen Trygstad, Sharon Tucker, Andrea Tindy, and Vicki Townsend.

Transportation was provided by Mrs. Alice Clark, Mrs. Bobby Brannon, and Mrs. Marvel Deliman.
